Subject: Microsoft Settlement

DOJ-ers,

I am opposed to the proposed settlement in the Microsoft antitrust trial.

I would suggest that the officers of Microsoft be forced to personally spend time in community-improvement programs, just like other criminals do. I further suggest that the time spent be commensurate with the scope of the crimes committed. To my mind, this implies that Bill Gates would spend the rest of his life servicing recalcitrant Windows computers at community shelters around the country (and perhaps at the DOJ).

Sincerely,

John Koger
